STOMACHS ON STILTS.

The man who puts on stilts does not increase his actual stature. He only feels taller. Stimulants are the stilts of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them afterward.

The need of the man whose stomach is "weak" is not stimulation but strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery perfectly answers that need. It contains no alcohol or whisky. It cures the weak, foul stomach with its attendant bad smelling breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and kindred symptoms.

"In the year 1899 I had an attack of indigestion and got so bad that my home doctor said he could not do me any good," writes Mr. G. Trent, of Gordonville, Texas. "I wrote to you and you advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, so I bought six bottles, and when I commenced using it I was so weak could hardly walk about the house. By the time I had used one bottle my stomach and bowels commenced to heal. There were strips of the lining of my stomach or bowels (I don't know which) as large as a man's two fingers passed and I had a good deal of misery in my stomach and bowels, and also in the rectum especially. I could not eat anything without having much distress afterward, but by the time I had taken eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I was sound and well, and could eat anything I pleased without suffering in the least. Could also do as much work in a day as I ever could. I have not suffered from the trouble since, and it was four years ago that I was so sick."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size.

THE ROCKEFELLER GIFT.

"What Would the True Christian Do with the Rockefeller Gift?" was the theme of the sermon delivered at Pittsburg, Pa., last night by Rev. S. Edward Young, of the Second Presbyterian Church in that city, the congregation in which there are probably more millionaires than any two in the city. He chose for his text St. Luke, xix, 8-9, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation I restore him fourfold; and Jesus said: 'This day has salvation come to this house.'" In part, he said:

"I suppose no clear-headed, unbiased reader of a half-dozen histories, favorable and unfavorable, describing the rise of the Standard Oil Company, would doubt that the process of crushing rival concerns by which it came to affluence was unspeakably villainous. For myself I would rather go before God the Father tonight in the person of the manslayer who has deliberately killed his one man than in the person of the head of that company, which, if I understand the facts, has been instrumental in taking almost the earthly all of multitudes of men. Albeit God is judge, not I, nor the preachers, nor the public. And inasmuch as these funds may not now be restored to their rightful holders, were I a member of the American Board of Foreign Missions I would vote to accept the $100,000; and were I close enough to the distinguished donor I would incite him to become uppish and by large and frequent unloadings upon religious and charitable causes show those congregational ministers how willing the best people are to accept his benefactions."

A discussion among the Baptists of the same nature as that among the Congregationalists over the Rockefeller gift has been inaugurated in Boston over the acceptance by the officials of the Baptist Missionary Union of a check for $100,000 from John D. Rockefeller for the purpose of the union. For 25 years Mr. Rockefeller has been in the custom of paying up whatever deficit the union may have had for the year, and this has usually been in the vicinity of $100,000. Thus far only one Baptist clergyman—Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor of the Warren Avenue Church, of Boston—has protested against the gift. On the other hand, Rev. P. S. Henson, of Tremont Temple, a large Baptist organization, thinks it should be accepted without question. Mr. Johnson said yesterday that he would not take a dollar from Rockefeller unless it was offered as conscience money. He characterized the Rockefeller wealth as a menace to the country, and asserted his belief that "the Baptist denomination are the worst sinners of the two" in accepting it. Mr. Johnson is one of the best-known clergyman in Boston, and it is believed that the controversy will be as far-reaching as that of the Congregationalists. The Rockefeller check has been cashed and is now in the union's treasury.

BLACK FLAGS IN MADRID.

Carrying black banners, 5,000 workmen made a demonstration in Madrid yesterday afternoon near the scene of Saturday's reservoir disaster. The police, on seizing the flags, were stoned by the crowd and several on both sides were severely injured.

Crowds of workmen and women, carrying black flags, forced all the theatres to close Saturday night.

During the day students and workmen paraded the streets collecting money for the families of victims of the disaster. The public is contributing freely.

The Governor of Madrid has prohibited a great popular demonstration of mourning which the workmen wish to organize, but he received the delegates of the workmen's associations, whom he informed that a street procession would be permitted under certain restrictions.

It seems that under the foundations of the collapsed reservoir were water pipes used to supply the palace and old Madrid. It is stated that this was cause of the subsidence, and not the surface of the ground, which, when tested, sank only about a third of an inch.

The vault was built of cement, with iron girders, as were also the supporting columns. The first fall caused all the pillars to bend and the end of the iron work to stretch, resulting in a general and uniform collapse. These explanations, however, cannot be considered as final.

Madrid newspapers publish assertions that the disaster had been foreseen by engineers as well as by workmen. It is now recalled that the bad condition of the soil on which the reservoir was constructed caused keen opposition and numerous criticisms when the scheme was being discussed in the Cortes.

Workmen who have been questioned say that they were compelled to build too rapidly with materials so defective that a disaster was bound to happen.

Many heartrending incidents and painful scenes are reported. Ten of those who were rescued alive have gone mad.

A large crowd stood around the scene throughout last night, watching the attempts at rescue in the light of huge electric lamps.

Plans to Get Rich

are often frustrated by sudden breakdown, due to dyspepsia or constipation. Brace up and take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They take out the materials which are clogging your energies and give you a new start. Cure headache and dizziness too. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; 25c, guaranteed.

A WOMAN'S ORDEAL

DREADS DOCTOR'S QUESTIONS

Thousands Write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and Receive Valuable Advice Absolutely Confidential and Free

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions in regard to her private ills, even when those questions are asked by her family physician, and many continue to suffer rather than submit to examinations which so many physicians propose in order to intelligently treat the disease; and this is the reason why so many physicians fail to cure female disease.

This is also the reason why thousands upon thousands of women are corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. To her they can confide every detail of their illness, and from her great knowledge, obtained from years of experience in treating female ills, Mrs. Pinkham can advise women more wisely than the local physician.

Read how Mrs. Pinkham helped Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Ia. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude in words. Before I wrote to you telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady, and spent lots of money in medicines besides, but it all failed to do me any good. I had female trouble and would daily have fainting spells, backache, bearing-down pains, and my monthly periods were very irregular and finally ceased. I wrote to you for your advice and received a letter full of instructions just what to do, and also commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have been restored to perfect health. Had it not been for you I would have been in my grave to-day."

Mountains of proof establish the fact that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for restoring women's health.

Says His Wife Proposed.

An unusual petition for divorce was handed up Saturday in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia by Charles W. Straughan. The petitioner, not caring to have a lawyer, drew the petition himself, and evidently supposing that it would be immediately granted, affixed an order of divorce for the Judge's signature.

Straughan's petition sets forth that in March, 1895, he received a letter from Mary Wood, dated at St. Louis, asking him to come and see her on important business. She inclosed $25 to defray his expenses. He went to St. Louis, where he says the woman proposed marriage. The petition says that "she spoke entreatingly." At any rate, Straughan yielded up his liberty and became hers.

After two years of married life Straughan suffered a stroke of paralysis, and his wife, he says, told him to "go back to Virginia and die on his relatives' hands," after which she deserted him. The petitioner avers that "he suffers much perturbation as a result of this moot marriage, and prays the court to relieve him of this incubus."

Justice Anderson refused to consider the petition.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 10, 1905.

YESTERDAY was the 40th anniversary of the capitulation of the Army of Northern Virginia and the virtual ringing down of the curtain upon the last scene in the career of the Southern Confederacy. It was a notable occasion in Alexandria, and there was a clanging of bells throughout most of the day by federal soldiers and certain Alexandrians who had espoused the cause of the union. The sun was setting upon Southern hopes of independence and principles which had been the common heritage since the yoke of George III had been broken. It was a notable fact that most of the soldiers of the Army of the Potomac, who had borne the burdens of the campaign, failed to give vent to unseemly hilarity, while many in Alexandria, who had been behind the stockades and who had been paid large bounties to re-enlist, gave loose rein to their ebulition. Added to these were numbers who had been loud in their expressions of fealty to the union but who failed to respond to the call to arms, and the fact that a few days before the surrender a registration of all persons between the ages of 18 and 45 had been made preliminary to a draft the surrender afforded such patriots decided relief. There are many interesting reminiscences connected with the fall of the confederacy. Each community has them, and Alexandria, so long the base of supplies for the federal army, abounds in recollections of the collapse. Reference has been made to the incessant ringing of bells on that occasion. That in the old Friendship steeple on Alfred street was kept in motion by relays of men, and that in the belfrey on the Relief engine house on Prince street was swung until it was finally cracked. On the 14th of the month there was a colossal parade of all the military in this city and the surrounding country, as well as of the different trades in this city. This was followed by cannon-firing and an illumination at night. A few hours later John Wilkes Boothe killed President Lincoln, and the rejoicing received a sudden check.

EXPANSION FEVER is on the wane, and the thoughtful and practical people of the country are now realizing the folly of placing the American flag upon islands inhabited by savages ten thousand miles from America. Naval officers have generally been regarded as safe guides in such matters, as they navigate the globe and have opportunities to observe conditions in every quarter of the world. They now see the train of evils which is to inevitably follow. It is becoming more apparent every day that this country has become satiated with Filipinos and Samoans, and, having the elephant on its hands, it is at a loss to know what to do with it. Such unprofitable possessions were for centuries a drain upon the Castilian, and Spain, once the most powerful and prosperous country in the world, was brought low by carrying such burdens. The United States should have profited by the example. The late Thomas B. Reed, a pronounced republican, and one of the ablest men of his day, foresaw the result and endeavored to keep back the tide of fanaticism of 1898. But the epidemic was as the cascade of Niagara, and his advice was consequently unheeded. More sober reflection shows he was right. In an address Saturday night before the American Academy of Political and Social Science in Philadelphia, Rear Admiral Melville, U. S. N., retired, emphasized the grave responsibilities resting upon the nation by its "three inheritances," the Philippines, the building of the Panama canal, and the administration of the finances of bankrupt republics, each of which, he declared, "is likely to prove a Pandora's box of evils and disappointments." It will be necessary for us, he said, to weigh well the important elements of naval conflicts. Admiral Melville outlined a course for increasing the efficiency of the navy, and the first step, he asserted, should be "the preparing of plans for the immediate abandonment, at the slightest possible financial loss, of every distant possession that is likely to require a fleet to defend it."

THE CAUSE of the army general staff executing an "about face" and substituting a sharpened heavy sabre for the toy sword and restoring the strong dagger bayonet in place of the little ramrod stiletto has been disclosed by the publication of the official report, dated April 1, which contains a letter from the President to the Secretary of War ridiculing the former change of these weapons.

AN ORGANIZATION to study and practice the theories set forth by Dr. Osler has been organized in Atlantic City. Well, if the members are foolish enough to chloroform themselves they will not long be missed by the world they leave.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., April 10.

It is believed by officers of the American navy, that Admiral Rojestvensky intends to meet the the Japanese fleet under Admiral Togo and give battle. While the location of Rojestvensky's fleet is now known, that of Admiral Togo is problematical, but the concensus of opinion among naval officers is that the Japanese are distributed between the Straits of Formosa and the Straits of Korea. It is expected that the battle will take place in one of these places, probably the latter. One prominent officer of the navy said to-day: "Rojestvensky will surely fight. He has now gone entirely too far to recede, and it is evident that he has received orders from St. Petersburg to risk all by bringing his immense fleet into combat with the fleet of Admiral Togo. Nominally the strength of the fleet with Admiral Rojestvensky and that supposed to be under the command of Togo is the same; but from my point of view the Japanese have the advantage in the fact that their men are all tried veterans whose morale is not excelled in any navy in the world, while the Russians are untried men, a majority of whom have never been under fire. Naturally, the objective of the Russian fleet is Vladivostok, and the engagement, which promises to be the greatest naval fight in modern history will have to take place somewhere off the coast of China between Singapore and the Sea of Japan."

Chief Engineer John F. Wallace, who arrived in the city from Panama last night, reported to Secretary of War Taft this morning and later was sworn in as a member of the new Panama Canal Commission. As Mr. Shonts, chairman of the commission, will not reach the city until tomorrow, the consultation of the executive committee of the commission with Secretary Taft and the South American diplomats regarding Panama railroad rates, which was to have been held today, will not take place until tomorrow.

After the opening of the National Council of Women's triennial convention yesterday, no formal meeting was held today. A reception was given to the delegates at the Shoreham Hotel this afternoon.

The Consolidated Stock Exchange.

Philadelphia, April 10.—With the closing of the offices of G. H. Chapman & Co. by the members of that firm, who removed their furniture and belongings between midnight and dawn of Saturday morning last, and subsequent inability to locate two of its members, William H. Cole, jr., and Cyrus Barnholdt, who were members of the Consolidated Stock Exchange, the latter organization has been asked to vacate its quarters in the Bourse building, where it has had its headquarters since 1902. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of these two, together with G. H. Chapman. A special meeting of the Consolidated Exchange has been called for this afternoon to discuss the situation and it is stated that a number of expulsions will be made.

Barred Red Heads From Jury.

Red-headed men and restaurant waiters were declared to be unfit for jury service in Judge Richardson's Court in Chicago Friday. As a result two men with incendiary locks and one waiter were excused. Miss Fanny S. Reader, proprietor of a restaurant, made the charge and the judge sustained her contention. Miss Reader was sued for $18.50 wages claimed by Miss Louise Davis, and both women acted as their own lawyers. Although the jury finally selected did not contain a red-haired man or a waiter, it found against Miss Reader, much to her disgust.

Damages to the extent of $1,000 are asked.

Mother's Frightful Error.

Mrs. Nannie E. Bowe, five miles from Chatham, administered strychnine to her 10-year-old daughter Winnie and her eight-year-old son Cabell Friday night, and also took poison herself and then sent messages to neighbors for assistance. She told J. T. Hall, the first to arrive, that she had given the drug by mistake for quinine, and that, as her children would die, she preferred death to life and had taken carbolic acid to hasten the end. Mr. Hall gave his attention to the children, and Mrs. Bowe, going out the back door and into the road, shot herself with a revolver. She was dead when found.

The following letter, written by the mother a few minutes before her death, was found later. The letter was sealed and addressed to Mrs. George T. Carter, Dry Fork, Va.:

Dear Sister—Dear Winnie is dead; Cab and I will die, for I gave them poison. I want you to have my rings and everything in the house but Tommie's picture. Send that to Mrs. Bowe. I want Cousin George to have my gray horse. Hope you will get here before I die. (Signed) N.E. BOWE.

Mrs. Bowe was about 40 years old. She was a daughter of Perry Carter, of Pittsylvania county. Her husband, Thomas C. Bowe, whose picture she referred to in her letter, died suddenly April 24, 1904.

Armour Against Gates.

Events are shaping rapidly for another wheat tragedy in Chicago like that which cost Joseph Leiter millions of dollars in 1898. Then it was Leiter against Philip D. Armour, and the great packer won. Now it is John W. Gates and his crowd against J. Ogden Armour, and Mr. Armour seems to have the better of the argument.

It is doubtful if even the Gates crowd, noted for cleverness, daring and financial backing, will care to "face the music" to the end, seeing that if they are successful on the surface they will be confronted with endless litigation over contract wheat and other points of law.

From every city, hamlet and farm in the west contract wheat in small consignments has been rolling into Chicago for a fortnight. The aggregate is beginning to assume dangerous proportions to those who have bought the grain for delivery May 31. Every private elevator in Chicago and the northwest is winnowing contract wheat out of grain that in its original composition falls below grade. Millers could not afford to grind contract wheat into flour.

May wheat Saturday closed 29 cents higher than July wheat and 33 cents higher than wheat for Sep tember delivery

Negro Set Boy on Fire.

The Dannin boy was playing in the street, when the negro, who came along, knocked him down and thrust a lighted piece of paper in his pocket. Dannin was found near by, writhing in agony. Men threw water on him and rolled him in the gutter to extingnish the flames, which enveloped his jacket. His right side was badly burned and he suffered from convulsions. The police expect to find the boy who set his clothing on fire. The locality where the incident occurred is frequented by rough boys.

Mr. J. L. Stokes, manager of the Prince William Hotel at Manassas, applied to the Circuit Court last week for a license to sell liquor. Judge Nicol refused to grant the license because the applicant was not recommended by the Town Council, in accordance with a provision of the charter of the town.

James H. Hayes, the colored lawyer and politician, who said he was tendered the place of consul at Guadeloupe, will decline the place. He does not relish the idea of leaving the United States, especially for such a post as that offered. Hayes was opposed by A. W. Harris, of Dinwiddie, and it is said that the place might possibly go to Harris.

The wife of Captain Brooke Payne, of the artillery service at Fort Monroe, has filed notice of a suit for absolute divorce against her husband. The coming legislature, which meets next January, will elect successors to the judges of the State Court of Appeals, all of whom, with the exception of Judge Stafford G. Whittle, have served twelve years. The only new candidate so far is Judge J. W. G. Blackstone, of Accomac. It is stated that there is a movement in the eastern section of the State to bring out candidates against all five of the judges.

In an explosion which occurred Saturday at the Ardway limestone quarry near Allisonia, in Pulaski county, eight men were blown to atoms, death coming to all instantaneously and without a moment's warning. Two others were so badly injured as to preclude all hopes of recovery. The explosion occurred while the men were tamping powder in a blast about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and in some way the charge accidentally went off.

R. A. Clark, Otto Myers, and Frank Thwaite, of Chesterfield county, are ill at the Virginia Hospital, suffering from arsenic poisoning. Clark's wife and several others are ill at their home in the county from the same cause. Probably all will recover. Annie Jones, colored, was arrested in Richmond Saturday on a warrant charging her with having put arsenic in the coffee the sufferers drank. She was Clark's cook. The woman denies the charge, but she left the house hastily just before the family was taken ill.

Capt. William E. Hinton, aged 60, died at his home in Petersburg yesterday. He had been an invalid for 10 to 12 years. He entered the Confederate army as a member of Company E, Twelfth Virginia Regiment, and was subsequently made sergeant major. Afterward he was a member of the City Battalion and later was adjutant on General Dearing's staff. For some years after the civil war Captain Hinton took an active part in politics and ran for Congress from the fourth district of Virginia, but was defeated. He served his senatorial district in the State Senate, and about 1875 was a member of the City Council of Petersburg.

Fire at Harrisonburg.

Harrisonburg was visited Saturday by fire, which for nearly an hour threatened to destroy the entire business section of the town.

The fire originated in the warehouse of the F. L. Sublett Hay Company, a three-story frame building, extending the length of an entire block. About 800 or 900 pounds of matches were being taken up on the elevator, when it broke and fell to the bottom floor. The matches ignited, the building caught fire and about 150 tons of hay stored in that part of it added to the fury of the flames.

The fire companies quickly responded, but before their arrival the front part of the building was ablaze. The fire quickly spread to the Catholic Church and to two nearby dwellings. The wind was blowing, and Dayton and Staunton were telephoned to for help.

The Dayton Hose Company arrived in time to assist in subduing the flames, but they were gotten under control before the Staunton fire department could get ready to start.

The losses are: F. L. Sublett, warehouse and part of contents, $14,500; J. Wilton & Son's goods stored in warehouse, $7,000; L. J. Golden, buggies stored in warehouse, partial loss, $800; E. A. Shands, dwelling, $1,000; D. F. Detwiler, dwelling and part of contents, $1,100; Catholic Church, partially burnt, all inside ruined; value of building, $3,500; Armour Packing Company goods stored in warehouse, $3,000.

Three box cars standing on the siding were destroyed. One was loaded with goods of the J. M. Snell Grocery Company, which was just moving into this warehouse. The loss is $1,400, with no insurance.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Russian and Japanese Fleets.

Tokio, April 10.—Messages which have been received here say that Rojestvensky is seeking to avoid Admiral Togo's fleet.

London, April 10.—The opinion is expressed at the Japanese embassy here that Admiral Togo will not attack Rodjestvensky until the latter has reached Japanese waters.

Amsterdam, April 10.—A telegram to the Algemin Handelsblad from Batavia, Java, says that a Russian fleet is reported off Banca island. It is expected that the fleet will arrive at Batavia. The belief here is that the fleet is Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron of battleships.

Banca is an island in the Malay archipelago and lies between Sumatra and Borneo. The island belongs to the Netherlands.

London, April 10.—The only news received today in regard to the Russian Baltic fleet is contained in a dispatch to Lloyds from Singapore. The steamer Gregory which has just arrived reports: "Passed 1 a. m. today, Russian fleet anchored twenty miles northeast of Manki, one of the Anamba islands."

There is no confirmation of the report to the Reuter Telegram Company that Admiral Rojestvensky is not with the squadron, as was announced.

Singapore, April 10.—Confirmation of the report that the Russian fleet was headed toward the Anamba gronp of islands was brought by the British steamer Radnorshire on her arrival today. The vessel reports that at 10:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon, she saw the Baltic fleet about five miles from Pulodamar (one of the Anamba group, and lying farthest southwest) and proceeding toward Pulomenti.

The Radnorshire also saw four warships, apparently Japanese vessesl, off Cape St. James (Chohcin China), on April 7.

Rear Admiral Enkirst was in command of the Russian squadron that passed here on Saturday.

The Anamba island are in the China sea, and lie about 150 miles northeast of Singapore.

Tokio, April 10.—It is the belief of many naval experts here that Admiral Rojestvensky has appointed a second rendezvous in the Pacific and that he will speedily quit the China sea, and sail to the East of the Philippines. If Valdivostok is his objective point, the Pacific course is favorable for his purpose. The newspapers all express the greatest confidence that Admiral Togo will be able to locate the Russian fleet and defeat it.

St. Petersburg, April 10.—The most intense excitement prevails here. The people are all waiting with feverish anxiety for news of the fleet. All the newspapers say that Russia has played her last stake in sending the fleet into far Eastern waters. Naturally the outcome of the movement is awaited with great interest. If Rojestvensky can elude Togo entirely and reach the Japanese coast or defeat the enemy's fleet, Russia's position would be helped wonderfully. On the other hand, the meaning of a decisive defeat is well understood.

St. Petersburg, April 10.—Telegrams received here from various parts of the country show that the people are hopeful that Admiral Rojestvensky has eluded Togo, and that he will now be able to effect a material change in Russian fortunes in the war.

Manila, April 10.—The American Vice Consul at Singapore reports that a large fleet of Russian vessels has passed that point headed in this direction.

The Chicago Strike.

Chicago, April 10.—Preparations for a greater struggle today in the Montgomery, Ward & Co. teamsters' strike kept both employers and men busy Sunday. The strike leaders made two important moves. One was the sending of a committee to Mayor-elect Dunne to ask a "square deal." The man who will be the mayor tonight replied that first of all he would preserve the peace. After that he would do all he could to have the strike settled by arbitration. A lockout is a possibility of the situation. Two cavalcades of four wagons each were driven from the big warehouses of Montgomery, Ward & Co., to the freight houses of the Santa Fe and Illinois Central Railroads this morning. Riotous demonstrations marked the passage of the wagons. Union teamsters defied big escorts of police with each caravan and blocked the path of the wagons at every corner. Obstreperous labor sympathizers who jeered at the non-union drivers, were pulled from windows, wagon stands, and other elevated positions. Clubs were used to clear passages and defiant teamsters were thrown into patrol wagons. Missiles were hurled from factory windows. The progress of the wagons was interrupted by frequent stops to take injured policemen and teamsters into drug stores to have contusions and cuts dressed. Express wagon drivers who refuse to deliver goods to the boycotted firm are discharged.

Hail in Pennsylvania.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 10.—At 1:15 o'clock this afternoon a terrific wind and rain storm broke upon the city, following a morning of spring sunshine and warmth. At 1:20 o'clock the rain suddenly changed to hail, which quickly covered the ground. The hail was remarkable for its size, and for the fury of its descent. Horses ran uncontrolled through the streets; skylights by the thousands were smashed, and untold damage resulted.

During the downpour the lightning flashed and peals of thunder were terrific. In the midst of it all, an alarm of fire was sounded, and the appearance of the fire appliances on the streets added to the terror of the scene. Traffic on the trolley lines is practically suspended for the time being. A report has been received that a man was killed by the lightning in Schenley Park.

The Nan Patterson Case.

New York, April 10.—Because of the extradition proceedings in Ohio, which seek to bring to this city J. Morgan Smith and his wife, the brother-in-law and sister of Nan Patterson, the actress, charged with slaying her lover, Caesar Young, the trial of the Florida girl was postponed this morning for a week. Counsel for the defense made strong objection to the postponement, but Recorder Goff granted the motion of the District Attorney, stating that a week's delay would work no hardship to the woman.

Columbus, O., April 10.—A rehearing of the requisition case of J. Morgan Smith and wife, held in Cincinnati for return to New York in the Nan Patterson case, will not be pressed before Governor Myron T. Herrick and the extradition warrant issued from the Ohio governor's office will stand.

Montague and Martin.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., April 10.—Gov. Montague speaks at Buckingham C. H. tomorrow. E. W. Hubbard, former member of the Legislature and a strong Martin man says he will challenge him to a joint debate. Senator Martin has decided not to take part in the Norfolk county campaign. He has written a letter to be read at the "straightout" meeting April 18, giving his reason. Gov. Montague is to speak against "Fusionists." All candidates are out attending court today and the situation is quiet here. A spectacular and bitter stage is expected in a short while.

The President.

Fort Worth, Tex., April 10.—Secretary Loeb has heard nothing from the President or his party since leaving at Frederick Saturday evening, nor has any news come concerning him leaked out of Frederick. Undoubtedly he spent Sunday resting on the great Burk Burnett ranch, and today will start on his wolf hunt. A large batch of mail was received over night from Washington, but nothing has developed of sufficient importance to disturb the President's hunt. The President and friends with him on the hunt are safely in seclusion. Secretary Loeb and the press representatives are stationed here until the hunt is over.

Appomatox Monument.

Appomatox, Va., April 10.—The first monument erected on Appomatox battlefield was unveiled here this afternoon in the presence of 10,000 people. The monument asserts the valor of the North Carolina survivors who surrendered forty years ago and was built out of funds appropriated by the old north State.

Governor Montague, of Virginia, and Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, spoke. Major George W. Armes, U. S. A. retired, who owns the battlefield, was present, and fraternally greeted the southern veterans. Major Armes was present at the surrender.

Expulsion of Jewish Children.

Berlin, April 10.—A dispatch from Moscow says that one of the most extreme measures ever taken against the Jews in Russia has been ordered there. The Russian authorities have ordered the expulsion from Moscow of all Jewish children living with their parents. The order is issued on the ground that while permission has been granted to a limited number of Jews to live in the city the privilege does not extend to their children. The order therefore has been issued that the children must leave the place.

Y., April 10.—The electric chair in the Sing Sing prison death house claimed the youngest victim this morning, Martin Ebelt, aged 24, confessed wife-murderer, paying the full penalty of the law for his most brutal crime. Ebelt strangled her to death with a shoestring.

The disturbances were renewed this morning, and several arrests have been made.

A Bomb in Naples.

Naples, April 10.—A bomb was exploded today in the Episcopal palace at Cenversano, in the province of Bari. Bishop Lamberti's study was blown to pieces, but the bishop was absent at the time the outrage was committed. Letter to W. C. Wibirt,

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: When you can buy paint for less than Devoe; don't; save your money.

Mr. Aaron Higgins, Plainfield, N J, always used 15 gallons of paint for his house; Devoe took 11.

Mr Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa, always used 11; Devoe took 6.

Mr Burt Young, Girard, Pa, always used a gallon for certain rooms; took half as much Devoe.

Mr Nathaniel Barber, Canton, N Y, bought 12 Devoe; used less than 6.

You can always buy paint for less than Devoe; don't; save your money.

The wearing counts the same way and doubles the difference.

The cost of painting is by the gallon. Weak paint cost most; most gallons.

THE TWO FLEETS.

According to the latest advices from Singapore Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet, as it appeared when sailing past that port Saturday afternoon, is no match for Vice Admiral Togo's fleet alone, much less the combined naval forces of Togo and Kamimura, which can be concentrated upon it at comparatively short notice.

The most important fighing ships of the Russian second squadron, including four battleships and a number of cruisers, were not included in the 51 vessels, 12 of which were commercial steamers and several converted cruisers, which passed through the Malaccan straits. There were only two battleships in the procession. The whereabouts of the others reported to have sailed originally with the fleet is unknown. They may be with Vice Admiral Nebogotoff's division of the squadron, but it was generally supposed they were in Rojestvensky's main division.

Probably the other ships have been separated from the main squadron for a strategical purpose, but the reason for any such move is not apparent, as it would seem the Russian admiral will need every one of his fighting ships in a battle with the Japanese fleet.

The report sometime ago that Rojestvensky's original flagship, the Kniaz Suvaroff, had foundered, although denied by the Russian Admiralty, may have been true. The only two battleships seen passing Singapore were the Sissoi Veliky and Oleg.

Charged With Murder.

Mary Bumbrey, 26 years old, of Prince William county, Virginia, is locked up in the Second Precinct Station in Washington charged with murder. She was arrested Saturday night, on advices from the police authorities of Prince William county. It is alleged she administered poison to Reuben Green, colored, of Manassas, resulting in his death. The Washington police will hold the woman pending the arrival of the Virginia authorities. Green was poisoned by a dose of corrusive sublimate and died in agony. Both Green and the Bumbrey girl were employed at the home of Mr. James Carr, near Bristow and Green had been paying attention to the girl, but had become engaged to another, and was to have been married soon.

Mr. Smith's Horses Sold.

The sale of Courtland H. Smith's stable of hunters Saturday night at Van Tassel and Kearney's, in New York, was a success from every point of view. Sportsmen from every part of the country were present, and quite a number of ladies not only gave a bit of color to the scene but bid for a number of the horses inside the ring. Mr. and Mrs. Courtland H. Smith were both present. When Mr. Kearney arose in the auctioneer's box to make his announcement to prospective purchasers, he said: "Every horse that is brought into the show ring will be sold to the highest bidder. There is absolutely no reserve, and I give you my personal assurance of this." The horses sold as follows: Garnet Ripple, to A Pinkerton, for $2,600; Col. Hawkins, to Lewis E. Waring, for $825; Tip Top, to W A. Pinkerton, for $1,200; Lucy Southerland, to C. D. Grugar, for $2,100; Pride of Hampton, to W. E. Delano, for $650; Palm Room, to A. McClay, $2,600; Jakeland, to W. E. Delano, for 500; Lady Gray, to Mr. Delano, for $650; Harry Patton, to Mr. McClay, for $900; New Zealand, to A. E. Ryan, for $500; Boo Bar, to H. C. Phips, for $550; Up-to-Date, to Augustus Smith, for $900; Chappie Lee to Augustus Smith for $750; Ogonquit to E. V. Loew for $625; Justicia to Mr. Loew for $475; Algonquit to F. W. Duryea for $450; St. Evangeline to Mr. Chapchase for $225; Loney Haskell to A. McClay for $275; Bombay to A. Cross for $175. Mr. Samuel Walter Taylor, of the Rider and Driver, purchased Mr. Smith's body break for $325. It was the one that is familiar to all who have attended Virginia horse shows for the past few years.

The nineteen horses sold brought $16,950, or an average of $839.47 per horse, and those figures include the price of three horses that brought but $675.

Mr. C. H. Smith expects to sail shortly for Europe to be gone two years.

Westmoreland Oyster Company.

Messrs. R. Ashby Taylor, Warren P. Taylor, Wirt E. Taylor, George A. Smith, G. W. Tiller, Joseph C. Taylor, W. L. T. Rogerson, and Dr. A. C. Palmer, of Richmond, composing the board of directors of the Westmoreland Oyster Packing Company, arrived here yesterday from Currioman Bay, where they had been on their annual inspection of the oyster beds owned by the company, and left late in the afternoon for Richmond. Mr. W. P. Taylor, who is the traffic manager of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad and a former resident of this city, stated that the oyster-packing company had planted 20,000 bushels of oysters recently, and during the next season expected to reap a harvest of from 125,000 to 150,000 bushels. During the coming summer the company will rebuild the wharf at Henderson's on Currioman Bay, and will name it Collyer's wharf, after the late George Collyer, of Richmond, whose death occurred since the last annual meeting of the directors.

Death of a Former Resident.

Mr. Edwin H. Delahay, from 1874 until 1890 a member of the firm of Joshua Thomas & Bro., of Baltimore, died yesterday afternoon at his home in that city. He was 77 years old. The deceased was born in Talbot county, Md. In 1856 he moved to Alexandria and with the late E. H. Kemp conducted the building and contracting business. In 1874 he went to Baltimore retiring permanently from business in 1890. He was a member of Washington Lodge of Masons of this city, and after moving to Baltimore entered Arcana Lodge. He was married in 1860 to Miss Laura M. Arnold, of this city. She and the following children survive him: Miss Jane R. Delahay and Messrs. Benjamin T. and W. A. Delahay. During the war between the States Mr. Delahay held several offices of trust in this city, and was for a time a member of the Common Council. He was the contractor for building the City Hall in this city in 1872-1873.

Nocturnal Airs.

It was after ten o'clock, and Sunday night, too, when a representative band of juveniles gathered at a well-known point in the southeastern part of the city and sang nasally and in other ways,

"Where is my wandering boy tonight?
Oh where can one be found?
Oh where is my boy tonight?

Like the animating air of "The Arkansas Traveler," the vocalists never went beyond the two lines quoted. A number of victims who were at the time invoking Morpheus, were tempted to raise sashes and, in the same tune, sing:

"Oh where is the wandering police tonight?
Oh where can one be found?
For we toss and we swear
And can no longer forbear,
Oh where is the police tonight."

Fires.

The alarm of fire shortly after 12 o'clock Saturday night was caused by a fire in an unoccupied house on the south side of Gibbon street, between Fairfax and Royal. The department soon reached the scene, but the fire had been subdued before it caused much damage. It is believed that the house was set on fire.

A burning ash barrel was discovered in the yard of a residence near the corner of Prince and Fairfax streets Saturday night. The barrel was near a stable and the timely discovery of the fire prevented what might have resulted in a disastrous conflagration.

Colored Man Killed.

An extra freight train on the Southern Railway, in charge of Conductor Turner and Engineer Harry Poss, struck a cow near Front Royal Junction, at 10:30 o'clock last night, derailing the engine and five cars. The fireman, N. Bagby, colored, was caught under the engine and killed. A wrecking train with a derrick was sent to the scene from this city, and the track was cleared today.

River Notes.

The British bark Alexander Black, Capt. L. A. Buck, with bone for the Bryant Fertilizer Company, has arrived. The Black left Buenos Ayres January 27, and was 72 days in making the voyage to this port. She encountered heavy northeast winds as far as latitude 13 S. There was a complete absence of the southeast trade winds. The bark was inspected this morning by Dr. Arthur Snowden, U. S. marine hospital surgeon, who gave a clean bill of health.

A Bright Sunday.

The weather yesterday was fair and pleasant throughout, and the streets were filled with people, while hundreds visited the environs and strolled far away into the country, enjoying the spring sunshine and the indications of animated nature. Many visited West End, where the new iron bridge has recently been erected over the railway. As many others strayed far up the Washington and Alexandria pike where the new union railroad yards are being constructed. An unusual number of strangers were in the city during the day.

New Saloon.

The remodelled saloon of Mr. Charles H. Zimmerman, in Market space, was opened to the public on last Saturday and all who visited that well-known resort were agreeably surprised at the extensive improvements made. The old fixtures have been replaced with cabinet oak, set off with handsome mirrors, which extend the entire length of the room. The ceiling is of steel. Beautiful pyramids of cut glassware of different hues and varieties lend a sight pleasing to the eye.

Smith, of the Corporation Commission, asking for any information concerning unsatisfactory railroad rates hereabouts, or any complaints of which the commission can take cognizance. The Dual Tragedy at Lorton.

Baron Mayor des Planches, the Italian ambassador to the United States, accompanied by one of the attaches of the Italian embassy, made a visit to this city Saturday evening and called at police headquarters for the purpose of making inquiries into the manner of the death of Joseph Leanto, the Italian laborer who shot George W. Malcolm, the public school teacher and deputy sheriff, at Lorton Valley, Fairfax county, Thursday afternoon and on Friday, according to statements, committed suicide, the details of which have been published in the Gazette. Chief Webster and Officer Roberts were on duty at headquarters when M. des Planches called. He questioned the officers in a diplomatic manner, but gave no hint of the object of the investigation. The ambassador's visit is supposed to have been prompted by rumors that the Italian was killed by a mob. Later the attache took a train for Lorton.

While all is quiet at Lorton, the scene of the double tragedy, there is much interest manifested in the matter from the fact that the Italian ambassador is making an investigation. The posse organized Friday morning about 8 o'clock for the arrest of the Italian consisted of J. M. Springman, John Plaskett, jr., Lindsey Dawson, Peter Hall, Elmer Mallory, George Bayliss, A. W. Grimsley and R. L. Harrover. They went to the commissary department of H. M. Quigg & Co., where Leanto was employed. The posse secured possession of the Italian without resistance and the latter asked permission to return to the commissary department to fix up his accounts, which was granted, but when Leanto remained in the car a half hour the posse became impatient. Deputy Haislip and Messrs. Springman, Plaskett and Dawson entered the car to see what he was doing. Leanto parlied for more time. Finding his behavior suspicious, Mr. Springman rushed upon him from the rear, seizing both arms. The Italian drew a revolver, with which he attempted to shoot over his head at Mr. Springman. A fearful scuffle was on in which the two men danced around the floor when Leanto thought he had a chance to hit his captor. The Italian fired, but the ball went crashing through his own brain. Though the two combatants had whirled around in a confusing scramble one of the deputies took a shot at the Italian at a venture, the ball lodging in the abdomen. It was not, however, until he shot himself that Leanto was completely overcome. Mr. Springman declared that the desperate behavior of the Italian was alone responsible for his death. No harsh measures were used, he said, until it became evident that Leanto had used the respite allowed him for arming himself to defy the officers, and this statement is fully boorne out by others acquainted with the facts, the idea of his death being suicidal not being entertained. It is believed that the Italian was mentally unbalanced. One of the wounds Leanto's body bore was said to have been received in the duel with Malcolm the previous day. The several Italian railroad camps near this place are quiet and orderly. The funeral of the unfortunate young man occurred yesterday afternoon from old Pohick Church, near Lorton, Rev. Everard Meade, the rector, conducting the services, an unusually large number of people from all over the county attending.

A CARD.

During the past week or ten days, since it was definitely known that I was to take charge of the National Cemetery at Antietam, hundreds of friends and acquaintances in Alexandria, where I have resided for over thirty years, have spontaneously expressed their regret, either in person or in letter, at my purposed departure. Such expressions have naturally produced their effects, and it being impossible for me to see many others, equally dear to me, I take this method of expressing my sincere appreciation of such a general manifestation of good will. I have lived longer in Alexandria than anywhere else—more than half of my life—during which time a generation has sprung up in the old city. I desire to say that the unfeigned friendship which has ever been shown to me as well as to my wife during our stay in Alexandria, and especially at this time, will not be forgotten, and that the recollections of the people of Alexandria will remain green in our souls. A light will always be in my window and the latch string on the outside for Alexandrians who may visit my new post.

"Maddening Potted Phrases."

We have protested against the "faultless even dress" of the hurried descriptive writer, since evening dress is the only male attire that excludes the possibility of error. But a long list could be made of the phrases—tinned and stale—which all writers use who write like enterprising and hurried builders, building with ready made doors and window panes. For example, one never reads an account of a railway accident from the lips of the "badly shaken" passenger without finding that "all went well until"—the thing happened. But perhaps the most maddening of these potted phrases is "the rash act." You will read how Mr. Smith or Mr. Brown sat down and wrote several long letters to his relatives, how he had with great care arranged his affairs, how with the utmost deliberation he purchased poison, a revolver, a new razor and a ball of twine; how he sent his family away for a holiday, went to his room and conscientiously poisoned, strangled, sliced and shot himself. "No reason," runs the inevitable comment, "is assigned for the rash act," which was as deliberate as the movement of the Rhone glacier.—London Chronicle.

Turkish Attar of Roses.

Turkish attar of roses is mainly produced in Bulgaria and is carried on in the fertile valleys on the southern slopes of the Balkans. The rose harvest in Bulgaria begins about the third week in May and lasts about a month. The second great seat of rose farming in Europe is the space between the Maritime Alps and the Mediterranean, in the extreme southeast of France. This is, in fact, the great scent farming and perfumery making center of Europe, the town of Grasse being the emporium of the district. Of course attar of roses is also produced in India, Persia and Asiatic Turkey under the climatic conditions desired, but the great bulk of the supply is furnished by the European regions already noted. The roses employed for attar making in Europe are: In Bulgaria the red damask rose and in the south of France the Provence rose, a hybrid or variety of the hundred leaf rose, to which also belongs the well known cabbage rose.

A Dream With a Moral.

A rich lady dreamed that she went to heaven and there saw a mansion being built. "Whom is that for?" she asked of the guide.

"For your gardener."

"But he lives in the tiniest cottage on earth, with barely room for his family. He might live better if he did not give away so much to the miserably poor folks."

Farther on she saw a tiny cottage being built. "And whom is that for?" she asked.

"That is for you."

"But I have lived in a mansion on earth, I would not know how to live in a cottage."

The words she heard in reply were full of meaning. "The Master Builder is doing his best with the material that is being sent up."

Then she awoke, resolving to lay up treasure in heaven.—Chicago Post.

The Englishman's Morning Tub.

Until the beginning of the seventeenth century English princes and other babes were immersed three times in the font when christened. The last Prince of Wales who was submitted to this ordeal appears to have been Arthur, the son of Henry II., who died in 1502 at the age of sixteen. The abolition of the practice was strongly objected to upon sanitary grounds by Sir John Floyer, a celebrated physician, who died in 1734. "Immersion," he says, "would prevent many hereditary diseases," and "the English will return to it when physic has given them a clear proof that cold baths are both safe and useful." So our morning tub is the outcome of royal immersion.—London Mail.

Freshness of Youth.

He was a respectable looking man, and, judging from his appearance, he was a butcher by trade, and this belief was verified a few minutes later. He carried a white apron under his arm, and as he entered a car a huge cleaver dropped from the bundle to the floor. A youth who had not reached the age of discretion sank out merrily, "Say, mister, you dropped your pocketknife." The passengers laughed, but they could not help but think that the youth took a long chance on kidding a man with a cleaver.—Albany Journal.

New Cure For Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

The Right Name is DeWitt.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cools, soothes and heals cuts, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Zichefoose, Adolph, W. Va., says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
